Sarah - No problem - we consider this circumstances outside the Port's control and appreciate you letting us know in advance. Let me know next Monday or Tuesday if all went well or not.

Subject: T4 104(e) Response - Document Production Issues

Hi Kristine,

As I mentioned in our call yesterday, the scanning company we use to produce the backup documentation for the Port's responses has been having severe technical difficulties with generating the PDFs for Terminal 4 (the file sizes were coming out larger than expected and were not manageable). I just spoke with them and they believe all of the issues are resolved; however, they won't be able to finish the compilation until Monday morning. We respectfully request your approval to deliver the submittal to EPA on Tuesday, April 20, 2010.

I apologize for the inconvenience. We really are doing our best to keep this on schedule, and I appreciate your patience and understanding.

Thanks,

Sara
